

Economic Growth and Tax Relief Reconciliation Act of 2001

As the Senate Republican Majority Leader, Senator Lott led the passage of this law which cut individual income tax rates, reduced the marriage penalty and estate tax and increased the amount of money individual savers could contribute to pension and savings programs.

Senator Trent Lott (R-MS)